

COCONUTS: WILSON'S REVENGE

by

Rod Kent

FADE IN:

EXT. POOLSIDE - DAY

WILSON, a volley ball, is drinking a big fruity drink with an umbrella.

A WAITRESS walks up and bends over.

WAITRESS

Mr. Wilson can I get you another drink?

EXT. OCEAN - DAY

A big wave crashes down on a Wilson who floating in the ocean. He lands on the beach

WILSON

No! Not again!

EXT. BEACH - DAY

In big letters in the sand are the words: FEDEX PICKUP.

Wilson is rolling down the beach and he runs into a coconut. It's love a first sight.

EXT. BEACH - DAY

SERIES OF SHOTS:

- A) Walking on the beach.
- B) Holding hands.
- C) Making a sand castle.
- D) Playing in the seaweed.
- E) Kissing on the beach, and s big wave splashes them.

EXT. BEACH - SUNSET

The other coconuts surround them.

HEAD COCONUT

You will be sacrifice to the gods.

EXT. VOLCANO - SUNSET

Wilson is tied to two sticks, lava is running down from the volcano.

A hand reaches down and picks up Wilson.

TOM

Wilson! I've come back for you!

FADE TO BLACK.