August 2018 What Up

Okay, so lets put aside Patreon's terrifying screw up earlier this month because boy howdy did that take some wind out of my sails. I was planning this post much earlier, but then all that happened, yikes. For whatever it's worth, it appears all my pledges went through okay. Thank you everyone, btw.

Lets talk about what I'm working on because it's pretty exciting!

TSAD is wrapped: My weird MerMay story, we float before the sea at dusk, is wrapped at 120,000 words. That was nervewracking to write, actually. I knew what I wanted that fic to be, but when I looked for similar stories to draw from I didn't.... find... any...? But considering the sheer amount of Winging It that when into TSAD, I'm happy with it.

Though Mims pointed out there's only like 4 sex scenes and what doesn't seem right. When I write the inevitable epilogue, I'll have to put more in.

Alchemic Prince VN: The Not-Chamomile Game is now codenamed Alchemic Prince VN, or APVN, and it's moving at a shockingly fast clip. People who would like to follow the production, there is a Discord for it. I'm not sure it would be very interesting, it's a lot of the team talking logistics and setting up tasks to complete and looking at funding.

If more than a few people want to watch production, I might make a role for that on the server, specifically for sightseers. We'll see. But things are moving, and I'm excited.

The Matter Of novel: I'm reviewing all my previous notes and gearing up to just START this thing. There's a point where I think I obsess too much over outlines to the detriment of getting work done, and we've reached that point here. I want to complete Act One and then see if that elucidates the missing details of Act Two.

I dunno if this is a project anyone wants updates on? It's a massive one and will not be completed for quite some time. I'm not comfortable granting document access, but I can probably provide nice excerpts as things move along. Let me know.

Oh Shit A Podcast: X32 SHOWDOWN COMBOB (tumblr, podbean) has premiered a solid week after I anticipated, but it's up. I've been wanting to do a podcast for about 5 years, and this one is perfect, I think. It's a very structured, it's gonna be 8 to 10 episodes, so it has a definite end point-- it's great. Our first episode was probably a little rough, but I really think the first Proper Episode is really good, and if you are interested in discussion of Homestuck and its flashes, please check it out.

Next story: Probably the chamomile or TWYCC codas. TWYCC is long overdue, but I cannot get the chamomile bonus fic out of my mind. It's a very sweet, kind story, and it's sexy, so.

This would be a very apt time for people to let me know what they would enjoy seeing updates on.

Thanks for the support!

I am deeply amused by the fact that as I was reading the line "it's probably not very interesting" a notification popped up that someone had joined the server, jsyk

WELL as far as I'm concerned, I'm so chamomile-bent right now I'd like the chamomile somno plz. Hrm hrm hrm :3c

Arcturus

Shall keep that in mind. It's a small story and very sweet.

As much as I adore TWYCC, I would looove a nice cosy Chamomile coda to curl up with - that fic is like a warm cup of tea on a cold afternoon (no pun intended) thank you for the updates!

Re: the novel, I'd be down to get a peek at excerpts from time to time! from a creator standpoint I agree that granting doc access would be Too Much lol, but occasional excerpts would be a good way to gradually draw in more people who don't know much of anything concerning the novel yet (like me!), while preserving the surprise of Full Context when given a choice between TWYCC and chamomile oh boy I'm conflicted...! I mean at the end of the day you'll end up writing them both anyway right so like, I'll throw my hat in with those who've already voted for chamomile lol
