Enceladus

by shittybundaskenyer

Summary

Shepard and Garrus both fight in the First Contact War, but fate brings them together on the icy moon of Saturn: Enceladus. Garrus gravely injured and all alone is saved by Shepard who just lost her whole squad and is stuck on a research station until communications come back.

Little comic companion pieces I did while writing my work in progress fic, Children of Earth and Sky.

Notes

Tumblr found this too spicy, so I'm posting it here just in case. I spent most of the holidays drawing these instead of writing :))

2 WEEKS AFTER THE CRASH

Two weeks ago I didn't think you'd survive...

And now you play
king of the castle.

TRUST

You're all just the same, aren't you?

Garrus, I—

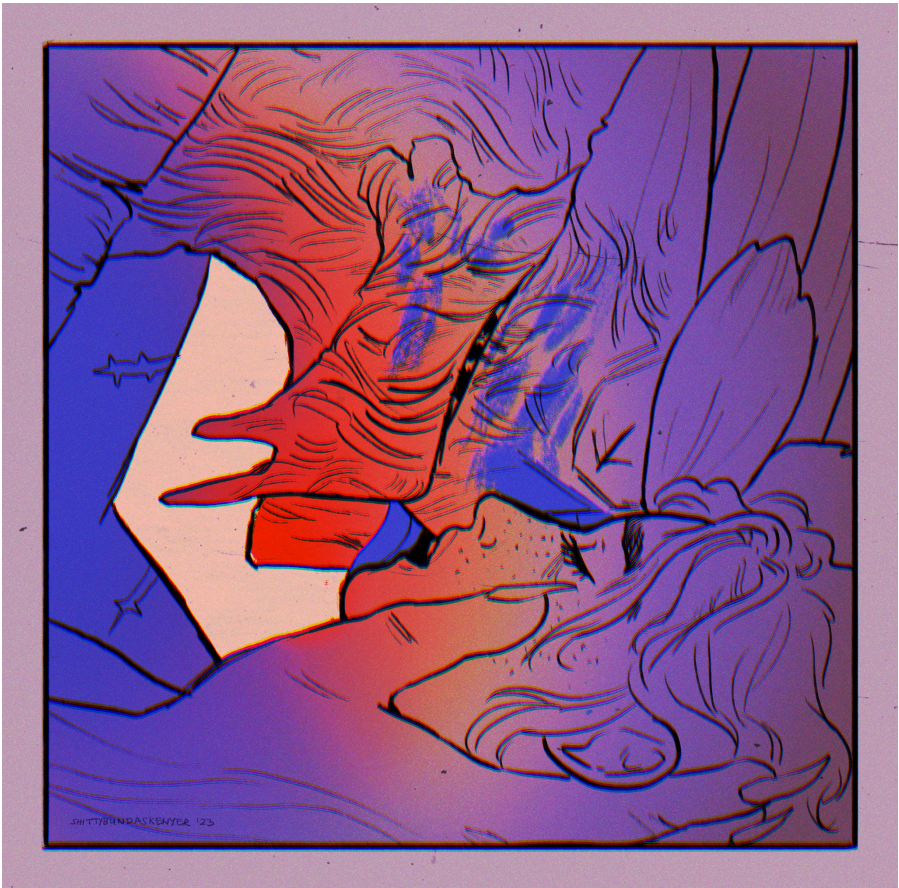

I almost trusted you.

SHITTYBUNDASKEN/TK '23

I know I hurt you, Garrus.

I—

I'm sorry.

Hm?

Oh...

It's a tattoo.

What is that?

It's similar to your mark.

It's our sun.

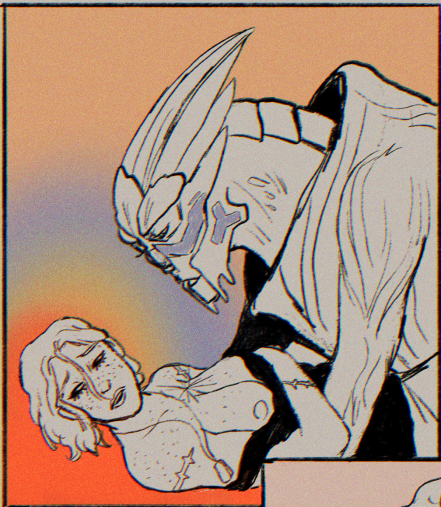

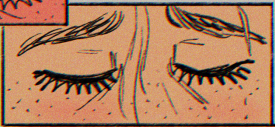

Or more like a drawing of it...

From a very old satellite humanity sent into space.

We hoped that someone out there would find it.

There was music on it...

Pictures.

Sounds of laughter and love
and kisses and crying.

We wanted to explore—

I wanted to...

DIFFERENCES HAS BEEN
FINALLY SET ASIDE

Why like this?

You're no turian.

I won't take you like one.
