PAWEŁ, WARSAW, POLAND, AGE 15 A

One morning last week I didn't want to go to school.
3 I wasn't ill, I was just feeling fed up with my friends.
So I went to my dad.

I said that school was cancelled for the day. He said, 'Oh, great. Let's go to the cinema then.' I was so happy. I was also amazed that he believed me. We got in the car and he drove me straight to school...

TRUDI, WISCONSIN, USA, AGE 19 B

I had a job at the customer service desk in the airport.

A lady phoned and asked if she could take her dog on a plane with her. I said the dog needed a dog basket to travel in. I explained, 'The basket needs to be big enough for the dog to stand up, sit down, turn around, and lie down.' The customer was anxious. She said, 'I can't teach him to do all of those things by tomorrow!'

MIKEY, BRISTOL, UK, AGE 14 C

I walked into the kitchen and saw my grandma.

She had her very first mobile phone in her hand.

I asked if I could help. She turned round and said, 'Oh hi, Mikey. What do IDK, LY, and TTYL mean?' I answered, 'I don't know, love you, talk to you later.' She said, 'OK then, I will ask your sister.'
