

Society: Engagements and Weddings Hold Interest at This Season

McKinley Hospital Women's Group to Convene on May 8

Reports of the various committee chairmen will feature the meeting of the Women's Association of McKinley Hospital to be held on Monday afternoon, May 8, at the Friends Meeting House on East Hanover Street. At this time returns will be made on the Spring dance held recently at the Trenton Country Club. Tea will follow the routine of business.

A meeting of the executive committee of the association will take place preceding the regular session. Mrs. Clarence K. Hammit, president, will conduct the session.

Miss Mary J. Messler, Miss Molly Buchanan, Miss Dorothy Lucas, Miss Elsa Schoening, Miss Ruth Scott, and Mrs. A. J. Eby represented the Trenton College Club at the annual State meeting of the New Jersey Division of the American Association of University Women, held yesterday at the New Jersey College, Trenton. Miss Eby represented the Trenton College Club, a member of the Trenton College Club, was a speaker, having as her subject, "The Practical Support of Enduring Values in Community Life."

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Voorhees, of Berkeley Avenue, will be hosts at dinner and bridge on Tuesday evening, May 9, at their home. The guests will include members of a club.

The entertainment committee of the Old Barracks Association will meet tomorrow morning at 10:15 o'clock at the Old Barracks to plan for the association Spring meeting to be held Wednesday, May 31. Mrs. C. Edward Murray, chairman. Her committee comprises: Mrs. Archibald W. Brown, Mrs. William S. Case, Mrs. Hugh H. Hamill, Mrs. Harold C. Harvey, John H. Scudder, Mrs. C. E. Herbert Sinclair, Mrs. Thomas W. Trenchard and Mrs. George B. Yard. Mrs. Paul J. Ralph is president of the Old Barracks Association and will preside at the meeting of the association immediately following this committee session.

Mrs. Jean Labatut, of Princeton, has returned to her home from Miami Beach, Fla., where she assisted in receiving the president and delegates of the National Federation of Garden Clubs, and also with the Pan-American League reception to which sixty-one Latin-American representatives were present. The Pan-American League is an organization formed on the principle to aid in furthering the cultural and social channels between Central and South America and the United States; of women and with the Pan-American League, Mrs. Labatut, critic of Architectural design at Princeton University, has returned on a trip to Europe by way of Cuba. The trip was made by airplane. Mrs. Labatut made a study of the Mayan ruins and during his visit to Chichén, Itza, was a guest of S. G. Morely, of the Carnegie Expedition.

Spring Luncheon Listed for May 9 By Council Women

IMPORTANT among the Spring events for the Trenton Section, Council of Jewish Women, is the annual May luncheon to be held on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 9, at the Hotel Hildebrecht. At this time, installation of the recently elected officers will take place. Mrs. Philip L. Vine is chairman of the committee assisted by the following: Mrs. Mathias Shalita, decorations; Mrs. Meyer H. Friedman, program; Mrs. Benjamin Wilson, Mrs. Sidney A. Gutkin, flowers and decorations; Mrs. Benjamin Binder, publicity.

Mrs. Louis G. Beers and her son, Yardley Beers, of West State Street, are in New York City for several days. Yesterday afternoon they attended the wedding of their cousin, Alfred Yardley, of South Orange. Mrs. John L. Yardley, who frequently visits at the Beers' home, made her professional debut with the International Grand Opera Company in Pittsburgh, Pa., last night.

Mrs. Joseph R. Comly, of Morris Heights, will entertain as an informal party on Friday afternoon at her home for her son, Edward Thomas Comly, 22, who will observe his birthday anniversary at that time.

Guild Executives To Discuss Plans For Annual Event

REPORTS of committee chairmen and plans for the annual May meeting will be featured at the session of the executive committee of the Mount Carmel Guild to be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the National Catholic Community House at 73 North Clinton Avenue. Miss Grace A. Dunn, president, will conduct the session.

MOTHER'S DAY CARDS

Besides many styles of beautiful cards for one's own mother, there are also many in our stock for the Mother of my Sweetheart, My Other Mother, My Sister on Mother's Day and so on. You will derive much pleasure in sending these messages on Mother's Day and think too of the joy you give to others.

Framed Mottos & Pictures

Norton, Farr & Cummings
Engravers—Printers—Stationers

123 East Hanover Street

Assisting with Cathedral Alumni Party

Miss Marie Campbell

Assisting with arrangements for the card party to be conducted on Friday evening by the Cathedral Alumni Association in the gymnasium of the school on Bank Street. Miss Anne Curran is chairman of the committee.

Progressive Dinner Held in Princeton Preceding Last of Little Club Dances

Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas C. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. B. Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kissam of Princeton entertained at a progressive dinner party before the final of the Little Club dances which was held last night at the Present Day Club. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Roberts have as their guests this week-end, Mrs. John Mott, Mrs. Antonio Delapenna, and Italian Bryan of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Kilsam have as their week-end guests, Lewis Sheridan of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George Batton, of Rosedale Road, gave a buffet supper last night in honor of their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Chatter of Montclair, Geoffrey Garstin, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bezin Davis of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Batten will give a tea today for their guests.

The annual horse show of the Stock Brook Hunt Club will be held at Constitution Hill, the estate of Mrs. Junius Spencer Morgan on June 10. Mrs. R. Lawrence Benson is chairman of the committee in charge. Other members of the committee are: Miss Janet Prantz, Lieutenant Thomas Keefe, Donald G. Herring, Norman Mackie, and Ferdinand Roebing White.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Gleason Spaulding, of Edgell Hill Street, were hosts at dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Martin, of New York, who were their guests for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Forsyth, entertained at dinner at the Princeton Inn on Tuesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Walker of Chicago, who spent a few days in Princeton on their way to their Summer home at Bridgeport, Conn. They left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where she will spend a week to attend the meeting of the Board of Regents of Gunston Hall and the meeting of the Colonial Council of the Colonial Days of America.

Professor Harold W. Dodds, of Springdale Road, entertained at dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Montague Harris, secretary of health from England who spoke on Thursday at Princeton University.

John A. Purling, of Albany, N. Y., spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Beech deForest, III of Nassau Street.

Among the Princetonians who went to Baltimore for the Maryland Hunt Cup Race yesterday were: Mr. and Mrs. E. McRister Steele, Mr. and Mrs. John Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Benson, Mrs. Henry B. Gardner, and Ferdinand Roebing White.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jenks, of Kingston Road, will return Wednesday from Alexandria, Va., where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Chawwood.

Mrs. Gaylord Hamwell, of Linden Lane, has gone to Frederick, Md., to spend a week-end with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frederick Hamwell. Her daughters, Mary Jane and Anne, who have been spending a month with their grandmother, will return with their mother on Monday.

Miss Lucy Anne Colpitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colpitts, of Cleveland Lane, attended the ball at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York on Friday evening. She has as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Keiser, of New York.

Mrs. Hodge Jones, of Williamstown, formerly of Princeton, spent a few days last week with Dr. and Mrs. Donald Bunker Sinclair, of Hodge Road. Mr. Jones joined his wife for the week-end.

Mrs. Kathleen Carnochan, who is living in New York this winter, is spending this week-end with her mother, Mrs. John M. Carnochan, of Mercer Street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Borne, who have been spending the Winter at the Princeton Inn, have left for their Summer home in Richmond, Mass. They will return to the Inn in the Fall.

Mrs. Henry Thompson has returned to the Princeton Inn for the Spring after spending the Winter, with her sister in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Tomlinson, of the Great Road, had as their guests last week-end Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Charlock, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burnham and Mrs.

New Jersey Society of Colonial Dames Announces Ballot for Annual Election

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the ballot election of officers to be held at the annual Spring meeting of the New Jersey Society, Colonial Dames of America, on Tuesday, May 16, at the Old Barracks. The ballot is as follows: President, Miss Isabel Hudnut, Allenhurst; Mrs. George W. Gedney, of Montclair, first vice president;

Miss Alpaugh and Richard D. Jessup To Wed Saturday

MISS Marjorie Alpaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Old Barracks, of 2635 Nottingham Way, and Richard D. Jessup, of 18 North Willow Street, will be married on Saturday afternoon at the Getchman Baptist Church with the Rev. Ellis C. Primm, the pastor, officiating. Following the ceremony the couple will leave for an automobile tour of the Southern States, after which they will reside at 14 Corson Avenue, Mercerville.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Trenton High School with the class of 1930, and is a granddaughter of Miss Alpaugh, Trenton merchant. Mr. Jessup, who attended the University of Illinois, and is a first lieutenant in the Reserve Officers' Corps of that State. He is the son of Stewart D. Jessup, head of the Presbyterian Mission at Sion, Syria, where the younger Jessup spent his first 16 years. His cousin, formerly Miss Annie Jessup, of Montross, Pa., is the wife of William W. Woodin, secretary of the Federal Treasury.

Mrs. Lewis B. Traver, of the River Road, entertained at bridge on Wednesday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Holland B. Slusser, of Ober Road, Princeton, sailed yesterday on the S. S. "Augustus" for Genoa. Mr. Slusser will spend several months. Mrs. Slusser was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward K. Sober, of Germantown, Pa., and her sister, Mrs. George C. Cook, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. John J. Cleary, of West State Street, was hostess to her card club on Friday afternoon at her home. There were eight guests.

B. O. Tilden, of West State Street, returned home Friday after spending several days in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Miss Matthews Is Engaged to Marry Leslie B. Thomas

Mrs. and Mrs. Bandal P. Matthews, of Mount Airy, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Hazel Erma Matthews, of Trenton, to Leslie B. Thomas, son of Mrs. Anna M. Thomas, and the late Edw. H. Thomas, of Bordentown. No date has been selected for the wedding. Miss Matthews is employed at the State House.

Mrs. Edwin M. Pumyea, of Stacy Avenue, will entertain her bridge club on Friday afternoon at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Taylor, Jr., of Cornwall Avenue, spent several days last week in Atlantic City, registered at the Seaside Hotel.

Mrs. Hervey S. Moore, of Yardley, Pa., will entertain at bridge on Tuesday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Charles E. Whithead, of West State Street; Mrs. Howard C. Hotel, of Morningside Drive; Mrs. Richard R. Weaver and Mrs. David Lanning, of Berkeley Avenue, spent several days last week in Atlantic City, where they were registered at the Hotel Traymore.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loer, of Kensington Avenue, attended a dinner party in Burlington last evening.

Mrs. Hannawacker Hostess at Party For Miss Wagner

Mrs. Frank C. Hannawacker, of Carroll Street, entertained at a delightful surprise shower on Wednesday evening at her home, honoring Miss Genevieve M. Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Wagner, of South Cook Avenue. Miss Wagner will become the bride of Dr. John J. Haney, son of Mrs. Mary A. Haney, of this city, in the near future.

The guests were: Miss Miriam S. Saas, Miss Loreta Harris, Miss Claire Sheridan, Miss Mary Willoughby, Mrs. Catherine Rausch, Miss Edw. A. Cinner, Miss Florence Wilkinson, Miss Mary G. Ziegler, Miss Helen T. Bamforth, Miss Dorothy Wagner, Miss Mary Ecker, Miss Eleanor Walsh, Miss Elizabeth Kucker, Mrs. Albert V. Wagner, Mrs. Joseph O. Russian-American explorer, traveler and artist, will give an illustrated lecture on "Matto Grosso." This will be a guest meeting, with members admitted without charge. Tea will be served following the address.

At the weekly meeting of the Present Day Club, to be held at the clubhouse, 72 Stockton Street, Princeton, on Wednesday at 8:30 o'clock, Captain Vladimir Peritt, the noted Russian-American explorer, traveler and artist, will give an illustrated lecture on "Matto Grosso." This will be a guest meeting, with members admitted without charge. Tea will be served following the address.

Mrs. Robert Beck, of Suggsant Avenue, entertained at a bridge party yesterday afternoon at her home. Among the guests were: Mrs. Frederick Loeb, Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. Walter Callahan, Mrs. Maurice Brink, Mrs. Charles Hultfish, Miss Mary Hendrickson, Miss Ruth Hendrickson, Miss Marion Bamford, Miss Mary Ellis, Miss Aris Billingham, Miss Elzora Wyckoff, Miss Martha Burton, Miss Leona Marple, Miss Miriam Yerville, and Miss Shirley Yerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Leukel, of Whittier Avenue, are spending the week-end in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McGrew Gilliland, of Newell Avenue, had as their recent guest the latter's brother, Charles P. Dudley, Jr., of Morrisstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Forst, Jr., of Morris Heights, spent some time during the past week in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hill, Jr., of Kensington Avenue, entertained informally at their home last evening.

Mrs. Forrest W. Cadwallader, of Herndon Avenue, entertained her bridge club on Friday evening at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Grace, Jr., of South Westfield Avenue, are spending the week-end in Atlantic Highlands, as guests of Mrs. Grace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Birks.

Mrs. Willard Hammond, of the River Road, will entertain at bridge on Wednesday afternoon at her home.

President of Adath Israel Sisterhood

Mrs. Irving H. Lewis

Newly elected president of the Adath Israel Sisterhood, who will be installed at the annual May Luncheon to take place on Wednesday afternoon at the synagogue on Bellevue and Hermitage Avenues. Mrs. Hyman Green will install the officers.

Aides Are Selected for Annual Supper Of State Street M. E. Church Society

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of aides for the chicken supper to be served on Thursday evening by members of the State Street M. E. Church. The event will take place at the church from 5:30 until 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Matthew L. Kyle, president of the organization, is in charge of details, and Mrs. James C. Wright is assisting.

The aides include: Mrs. Archibald W. Brown, chairman; Mrs. Henry Holt Apgar, Mrs. J. Cornell Murray, Mrs. John L. Williamson, Mrs. J. Osborne Hunt, Mrs. Charles P. Messie, Mrs. L. E. Andrews, Mrs. John E. Duryea, Mrs. C. Kresland, Mr. Albert Salisbury, Mrs. James A. Loder, Mrs. Herbert Algier, Mrs. William C. Lynn, Mrs. William Winters, Mrs. Edward A. Dyer, Mrs. Joseph Reed, Mrs. John E. Morph, Miss Mildred H. Apgar, Miss Alice Duryea, Miss Mary Louise Brown, Miss Rayna Hutchinson, Miss Dorothy Frances Wright, Miss Nathan Gabriel, Miss Irene Gabriel, Miss Mary Murphy, Miss Charlotte Smith, Miss Mildred H. Broughton, and Miss Fanny Potts. Mrs. Howard J. Thomas is in charge of the supply table, assisted by Mrs. Paul G. Duryea, Mrs. Walter E. D'Arcy, Mrs. J. Lewis Crisp and Mrs. Charles A. Burt.

Mrs. Edgar D. Coleman, of Riverside Avenue, entertained at bridge on Monday afternoon at her home. The guests were members of a club.

Mrs. William S. Case, of Greenwood Avenue, has as her guest Mrs. Philip A. Case, of Narbeth, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Remsen, of the Glen Cairn Arms of West State Street, entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening at her home.

Mrs. John Haulenbeck and her children, of South Orange, are visiting Mrs. Haulenbeck's father, former Mayor Frederick W. Donnelly, of Fisher Place.

Mrs. Buchanan Ewing, of Carteret Avenue, was hostess to her bridge club on Monday evening at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cornell, who have been spending the past six months in Daytona Beach, Florida, have returned to their home in Lawrenceville. They made the trip by motor accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Well-

Miss Rosalie Prenting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Prenting, of East Ingham Avenue, entertained her bridge club on Wednesday at her home. The guests were: Mrs. Raymond A. Schroth, Mrs. Raymond E. Kuser, Mrs. F. M. Magred, Miss Helen Decker, Miss Margaret Richardson, Miss Dorothy Braithwaite and Miss Frances Christie.

In compliment to Miss Cornelia Gardiner, of Buxton, England, Board of the Young Women's Union, Arthur M. Conger, of Nassau Street, Princeton, a luncheon and bridge party was given by Mrs. William C. Vandewater, of Springdale Road, Princeton, on Friday afternoon. Also featuring Miss Gardiner was the bridge party given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stockton, 3d, of Westcott Road, Princeton.

Mrs. Conger entertained at an informal luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at the Present Day Club, feeling her guest.

Announcing-- The opening of a studio where those who want the best can get Photographic Portraits of the highest quality.

Howard Bouton Portraits of Character

38 W. State St. Trenton, N. J. Sun Optical Bldg.

Florence Mission Managers' Board To Meet May 10

AMONG the Spring meetings is that of the board of managers of the Florence Critchdon Mission, to be held on Wednesday afternoon, May 10, at the Institution on Edgewood Avenue. Reports of chairmen will be received at the session, which is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Samuel D. Oliphant, Jr., will preside.

Several Trentonians will attend the meeting of the Huguenot Society of Pennsylvania to be held on Wednesday in Collegeville, Pa., at which Mrs. James Roosevelt, member of President Roosevelt's cabinet, will be the honored guest and speaker. Among those who will attend are: Miss Katherine B. Rogers, Miss Caroline E. Warton, Mrs. Robert M. Weber, Mrs. Ralph Jones and Mrs. Francis Field Cox.

Mrs. Carrie K. Johnson, of West State Street, will entertain at a May Day luncheon and bridge party tomorrow afternoon at her home. Places will be marked for twelve guests. Pink and white will be the color scheme of the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Voorhees, of West State Street, are among the guests at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

Mrs. Herbert A. Moore, of Sanhuan Drive, will be a bridge hostess tomorrow afternoon at her home. The guests will include members of a club.

Adath Sisterhood To Install Officers At Annual Session

UNDER the direction of the Adath Israel Sisterhood, the annual May luncheon will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the vestry of the synagogue on Bellu and Hermitage Avenues. Annual reports will be presented by the chairmen of the various committees and newly elected officers will be installed by Mrs. Hyman Green.

The following officers will be installed: Mrs. Irving H. Lewis, president; Mrs. Meyer H. Friedman, first vice president; Mrs. Harry Krause, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Kussland, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Abram Watov, treasurer. Mrs. Lewis will announce chairman of committees to assist her during the ensuing year.

Mrs. Harry J. Urken and Mrs. Benjamin Vine are in charge of the reservations for the luncheon. Among those who will attend are: Mrs. Abraham Feldman, Mrs. Emanuel Levin, Mrs. Morris Mackler, Mrs. Louis Kalm, Mrs. Max Josef, Mrs. Joseph Gillinsky, Mrs. Joseph Korn, Mrs. Jack Avner, Mrs. Carl Litowitz, Mrs. Charles E. Gillinsky, Mrs. Israel Kohn, Mrs. Hyman Garb, Mrs. Samuel Levin, Mrs. Samuel Anderson, Mrs. Arthur Hoenig, Mrs. Benjamin Vine, Mrs. Meyer Garber, Mrs. Israel Vine, Mrs. Samuel Eisenstein, Mrs. Hyman Green, Mrs. Morris Nochnumson and Mrs. Benjamin Goodstein.

Mrs. Francis M. Walker, of "Charmleigh-on-the-Delaware" on the Tardis River Road, is a patient at the Orthopedic Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Chauncey van Horn, of Riverside Avenue, attended the races at Havre de Grace, Md., on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. N. R. Wyckoff Will Entertain for Community Board

LISTED for Wednesday evening is the meeting of the executive board of the Young Women's Community Club of the Prospect Street Presbyterian Church, to be held at the home of Mrs. Nathan R. Wyckoff, of 738 West State Street. Reports of officers and committee chairmen will be received at this time. Mrs. Ethel Y. Lambert will preside.

Miss Loriel Woodward, daughter of Mrs. L. L. Woodward, of West Trenton, entertained the bridge club of which she is a member on Thursday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Webster Edgerly, of West State Street, has as her guests, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bates, of Mystic, Conn.

Miss Beatrice Miers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Miers, of Fisher Place, spent several days during the past week in Atlantic City.

Miss Elsie Richards, granddaughter of Bishop and Mrs. Alton W. Knight, of Berkeley Avenue, who is a student at St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, is attending the house party this week-end at Princeton University.

Removal Announcement On and After May 1st Mari-Posa Beauty Salon

241 E. Hanover Street Will Be Located at 44 West State Street Opposite the Stacy-Trent 2-1539 2d Floor Phone 2-1539

Hundreds of Women Phoned "We Want Your New Thrifty Service!"

A Week's Laundry 98¢ 14-lb Bundle

It's a "New Deal" for busy housewives—this New Connor-Way Thrifty Service. A full week's laundry immaculately washed with all flat work beautifully ironed and hand-finished—for less than a dollar . . . no other service compares with it in value or quality. Our delivery cars pass your door. Talk to our driver-salesman or phone 2-1010.

Delivery service covers city and suburbs—driver-salesmen pass your door.

Connor Bros. Laundry Phone 2-1010
1015-17 FAIRMOUNT AVE.