Third Blaze in 3 Months Damages Plant Contents at Bristol

BRISTOL. June 30.-Spar aning room in one of the buildings of the Samuel Jackson & Fors, Inc., plant here yesterday after noon, causing several hundwit dollars damage. It was the third fire in as many months.

Over 10,000 fuses for army, navy and construction work went up in the blaze at an approximate cost of $18 a thousand, according to a company official. And only because the small one-story stucco building was divided by fire walls prevented further and more extensive damage. # DON'T DENY YOUR CHILD the Benefits of the Wonderful NEW HIGH VITAMIN TASTYEAST

Read what one grateful mother says about this remarkable food confection with the full B complex vitamins-

Mrs. Milton Ferdon, 165 Danforth Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey, writes as follows:

"My 8-year-old daughter could not eat or sleep and did not seem to have any ambition. I heard about Tastyeast and decided to try it. I had already tried every vitamin pill on the market—she either could not swallow them or they turned her stomach sick,

"Well. I started on Tastyeast and I wish you could see the difference in this little girl. Her eyes sparkle, she eats very nicely, plays everything the other children do and has gained six pounds. I'm about the happiest mother in the world.

"When I spoke of the improvement in my daughter's health I meant to tell you that her hair has a new lustre. It seems as if all the vitamins she lacked are in that one little candy bar. She takes 3 bars of Tastyeast every day and we use a 24 box up in a week."

In a second letter to the Tastyeast Company, Mrs. Ferdon wrote: "If anything in my letter will help someone else with their problems of child raising, I'll be very pleased to have you use it."

Mothers—There is the answer—3 bars of TASTYEAST a day for skinny, rundown children or convalescents. The new high vitamin TASTYEAST—containing the important B complex vitamins—tastes like delicious candy—that's why all children love to eat it.

And that's why it's just as important for well and healthy youngsters to eat one or two bars of Tastyeast every day to stay well and healthy. Reinforce your vitamin intake daily—the pleasant way-

3700 units of A-B-D and G vitamins in every bar cost but a few cents. You can buy TASTYEAST in nearly every drug, food, candy and 5 & 10c store
