Asks County To Save Jail

MOUNT HOLLY - The Burlington County Historical Society yesterday asked the Board of Freeholders to save the historic Burlington County

In a resolution read at the Freeholders' meeting, the society requested a public hearing be held before the board approves plans for a proposed new $1,500,000 county building and jail, tentatively scheduled for construction on the site of the present jail at High and Grand Streets in Mount Holly. The Freeholders recessed their meeting until tomorrow and indicated the jail matter might be on the agenda at that
