Washington Crossing People Get

Concession From the Pennsylvania Railroad Company

Residents of Washington Crossing when it is considered that even and have filed a petition with the State Public Utility Commission, saking that the grade crossing over the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks be safeguarded. F. L. Sheppard, general superintendent of the New York Division of the Pennsylvania, has replied to the notice of the Commission, stating that a day watchman will be stationed at the crossing in connection with the work of consing in connection with the work of convincing test, will be sent by mail.

number of horse-drawn vehicles and many pedestrians passed over the crossing. That hotels and boardinghouses will soon be filled with guests resulting in many children congregating at points to meet trains, receive daily mail and reach the river bank for boating and bathing purposes. Attention was called to the abrupt entrance from the macadam road to the canal and railroad crossing, going west, and the abrupt ascent to the track east.

In his letter to the board, Mr. Sheppard also stated that this crossing is located on a tangent. SQUATTERS MAY BE

WASHINGTON, July 22 .- Conster nation was today struck into the hearts When thou doest rage, or seemest of a community of "Squatters," who for many years have occupied some of the most valuable land in the capital. Thou it known to all, yet ever strange, by an order from Attorney General What doest thou bring—but pain, dis-Wickersham calling them to appear in court to show cause why they should not be evicted.

These people trace back to the Civil War when soldiers, runaway slaves and camp followers, for want of another place to go, settled down on unclaimed lands. The main residential growth of the city afterwards turned towards that the adverse winds, Fortune's wheel:

AGAINST FIGHT PICTURES. Quoting Justice Swayze's charge that it would be filegal to display the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, John T. Sprouli, president of the New Jersey Christian Endeavor Union, has sent to each Endeavor Society of the state a letter recommending action against exhibiting the films. Mr. Spipouli suggests in his letter that each society urge on the proper officials the permanent prohibition of such exhibitions.
