

Bordentown Burlington Crosswicks Columbus Florence Mount Holly Hightstown Roebling

Suburban

Flemington Morrisville Stockton Lambertville Ringoes Sergeantsville Titusville Pennington

Mount Zion Church To Mark 103d Anniversary Next Sunday

HOPEWELL.—The 103d anniversary of the Mount Zion Methodist Episcopal Church at Zion, near here, will be observed next Sunday with a special service beginning at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. John M. Sayre is pastor of the church and Edgar W. Higgins is Sunday School superintendent. Guest speaker will be Dr. George Flint of East Orange, district superintendent. The program also will include vocal solos by Mrs. Walter Kuhn and mandolin and guitar duets by the TenNyx Sisters.

Needlework Guild In Campaign For New Membership

FLEMINGTON.—"Membership Week" is being observed by the Flemington Branch of the Needlework Guild of America this week. This branch is the first of over 700 to be organized in the county. Guild membership is open to men, women and children. A guild director is a member who obtains 22 or more articles and monetary donations, and is responsible for the collecting of all items before the annual "Ingathering".

Bordentown PTA Conducting Drive

BORDENTOWN.—St. Mary's PTA is conducting a drive for membership this month under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Schultz. A prize will be given to the class room securing the most members during the drive.

Miss Hazel Dempsey Is Wed At Princeton

PRINCETON.—Mr. and Mrs. John Dempsey of 18 Park Place announce the marriage of their daughter, Hazel, to Arthur A. Foyson of Mr. and Mrs. William Benton of Main Street, Lawrenceville. The wedding took place September 7 in the Second Presbyterian Church, Princeton.

Use Sewing Machine

UPPER FREEHOLD.—The electric sewing machine donated by the Eastern Star Home and Charity Foundation of New Jersey for use in the sewing room of the annex of Tilton General Hospital at Fort Dix was used recently by the A. W. V. S. members. There were 16 pairs of trousers, 48 chemises were sewed, and several jacket sleeves were shortened. In the pressing room there were 15 shirts, 15 pants, six jackets and three ties pressed.

Hostess To Meeting

MORRISVILLE.—Mrs. Margaret Clark of 78 North Pennsylvania Avenue will be hostess to the regular monthly meeting of Morrisville Auxiliary to McKinley Hospital at a covered dish luncheon at 12:30 p. m. tomorrow. Plans will be made for the annual banquet, and also for the Winter fund-raising activities. President Mrs. Arthur Beadle will preside.

Groveville

There will be a silver tea on Wednesday afternoon at 2 at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Bowers. Those who plan to attend are asked to bring something to work on for the WSCS bazaar. Mrs. Daniel Dwyer of Cresson spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Minard Dwyer. The regular meeting of the Groveville PTA will be held tomorrow evening in the schoolhouse at 8. Mrs. Albert Simpson, Mrs. William Straley and Mrs. Howard Shelton are hostesses.

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

In Play Cast

Mrs. Jean Hopkins

Who will portray the role of Ruth Sherwood in the play "My Sister Elton," which will be Theater on October 24 and 25 in the Morrisville High School auditorium.

Shirley Holman Head Of Patrol At Dutch Neck

DUTCH NECK.—The Dutch Neck School safety patrol has been organized, with Shirley Holman as captain. Lieutenants are Joyce Holman and Richard Walton. The patrol meets with Mrs. Carolyn Urdick, faculty advisor, each Tuesday. Problems of safety, which have needed attention are discussed. During September, diagrams of the school were made to locate any hazards that might be dangerous. The theme for October will be "Fire Safety." At next Tuesday's meeting they will present posters they have made. Once a month the patrol presents a safety program to the school. Members are: Melvin Sanders, Charles Taft, Earl Tindall, Richard Krug, William Young, Dennis Robert Reed, James Mac Kenzie, Elgin, George Noble, Beulah Ellis, Betty Mershon, Carolyn Tryon, Vivian Wright, Diane Dixon, Phoebe Seales, Geraldine Reynolds, Sara Jane Okeson, Ramona Paul, Edith Reed, Janice Sniley, Paul Blaney, Gertrude Van Kirk, Henry Servis and Bruce Tindall.

Wednesday Session For Sewing Circle

HOPEWELL.—The Sewing Circle of the Presbyterian Church will meet in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday afternoon. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and the business meeting will begin at 2:30 p. m. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Robert Green, chairman; Mrs. Fred Stoger Jr., Mrs. Fred Stoger Sr., Mrs. Max Laird, Mrs. Ray Shirley, Mrs. Marion Voorhees, Mrs. Samuel Little, Mrs. William Piggott and Mrs. Warren Moran.

Tour For Girl Scouts

YARDLEY.—Girl Scout Troop No. 37 enjoyed a trip through the Cold Spring Bleachery and the print shop recently. Making the tour were: Malzie Thomas, Frances McIntyre, Marie Dolores McGee, Jane Coulton, Vaughn, Patsy Davis, Lois Boss, Robert Curley, Janet Dansbury, Gail Matlock, Nancy and Peggy Pegg, Louise Dilliplane, Esther and Willie Mae Nicholson, Elizabeth Hubert, Geraldine Carver, Mary Louise Mason and Troop Leader, Mrs. Bernard G. Slinner.

Surprised On Birthday

ALLENTOWN.—Theodore Davison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester S. Davison of Cream Ridge was tendered a surprise party recently in honor of his birthday. The guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Edmund Carlisle, Miss Esther Messier, Miss Dorothy Laird, Miss Elsie Laird, Miss Iva Hammel, Miss Marion Hawley, Miss Laura Burtis, Miss Marie Ellen Williams, Miss Helen Marie Leming, George Tatum, Henry Robbins and Calvin Robbins.

Given Farewell Party

FRENCHTOWN.—Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Broomel and son, Edward, party for Clement Hoagland, prior to his induction into the army. Others present were Mrs. Amy Emery and Mrs. Bertha Hoagland.

PO of A Party

MORRISVILLE.—A card and novelty party will be held at Chambers Street Hall on Thursday night at 8 by the Patriotic Order of Americans, Camp 297. Mrs. Helen Toim and Mrs. Lawrence Riley, Sr. are in charge of arrangements.

New Egypt

Robert McNamara is a surgical patient at St. Francis Hospital, Trenton. Mrs. Richard M. Ryan of Burlington Road is a surgical patient at McKinley Hospital, Trenton. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony VanHise and Miss Katherine Paulson of Trenton were recent afternoon and evening guests at the Singleton home.

Bucks PTA Council Will Hold School of Instruction Oct. 26

MORRISVILLE.—The regular Fall School of Instruction of the Bucks County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will be held in the Morrisville High School auditorium on Saturday, October 26.

The program committee, with Mrs. Lloyd Bucher of South Langhorne, as chairman, is making arrangements for representatives of the Pennsylvania Congress to lead discussions in various phases of Parent-Teacher work at the morning session, which will follow the registration at 9:45.

Girl Scout Troop Has Hike, Picnic

PENNINGTON.—A nature hike to Washington Crossing with an outdoor picnic lunch was held recently by members of Girl Scout Troop 34. A tour of the park was conducted by Lawrence Smack of the New Jersey State Department of Reformation, who also gave a talk on soil, seeds and seedling trees. Each Scout received a gift of seeds, plants and a three-year tree seedling. The troop was in charge of Mrs. C. Robert Jones and Mrs. Lawrence Smack, leaders.

Those attending were Gertrude Van Brunt, Ann Chilton, Beverly Sutton, Barbara Poole, Janet Tilton, Virginia Cole, Dorothy Finley, Marie Oliver, Eileen Ryan, Doris Tilton, Frances Marotta, Phyllis Branham, Roberta Johnson, Lorraine Comey, Kathleen Wells and Dolores Butterfield. On Tuesday at the regular meeting of the troop Smack presented an illustrated lecture on trees. These events are in connection with the work being done by the scouts toward their tree finder's proficiency badge which will be awarded upon completion of the study. The troop is planning to plant a tree next Spring at the Pennington Grammar School.

Mothers of troop members were guests at the meeting. Following the program a reception and tea were given. Mrs. Kenneth Hankinson presided at the tea table. Guests included Mrs. Maud Adams of the Trenton Council, Mrs. M. A. Broese, Mrs. Douglas S. Dills, who was founder of Girl Scouting in Pennington, Miss Edna Royer, Mrs. Robert Poole, Mrs. Robert Chatten, Mrs. Harold Butterfield, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mrs. A. Coley, Mrs. Frank Town, Mrs. Katherine Sutton, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Smack.

John Healey, Bristol, Accepts Fellowship

BRISTOL.—John E. Healey Jr. of Green Lane has accepted a fellowship in research surgery at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. Healey, a senior-student, has obtained a leave-of-absence from classes for the present school year to work in the laboratories of the department of research surgery, under the direction of Dr. John H. Gibbon Jr., professor of surgery and head of the department. A graduate of Bristol High School, Healey received his pre-medical education at the University of Puerto Rico and St. Joseph's College of Philadelphia, obtaining his Bachelor of Science degree from the latter institution.

Program For Grange

WINDSOR.—Tomorrow evening at 8, Windsor Grange will hold a "Booster Night" meeting in Grange Hall. It will be an open session and a special program has been arranged including a guest speaker and motion pictures. The latter have been furnished by the Drake families of Windsor Grange. All members are urged to attend and bring a prospective member with them.

Session For Society

MORRISVILLE.—Mrs. Robert Bolton of Langhorne will be hostess to the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church at her home on Thursday. Cars will leave the residence of Mrs. Fred Cox, 227 North Pennsylvania Avenue, at 10 a. m.

Council To Convene

MORRISVILLE.—Common Council will meet in regular monthly session at Borough Hall at 8 p. m. tomorrow with President Harry M. Lair presiding.

Georgetown

Mr. and Mrs. James Barry of Mount Holly and their guest Mrs. Meron Mellick of Valley Stream, L. I., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hart. Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Durr have received word that their son Technician Fifth Grade John Durr, is on his way home from Japan. He has served in the army 20 months, including 13 months overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hart visited the State Fair. Miss Betty Durr of St. James Hospital, Newark, spent Tuesday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Herman Durr.

Lambertville

Mr. and Mrs. George Murray of Buttonwood Street spent a day recently with the former's Mother in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson of Perry Street are on a business trip to Vermont. Miss Dorothy Champion of Delaware Avenue spent a day in Trenton.

Mrs. Mary Johnson of North Union Street and Mrs. George Harrison of Perry Street also spent a day in Trenton. L. Raymond Slout of Elm Street is spending some time with his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Dawes at Jmaysdown.

Recently Wed

Mrs. Robert A. Mead

Formerly Miss Geraldine P. Fenton, daughter of David Fenton of Seaside Park and Mrs. Sadie Huffnabel of Bristol, who recently became the bride of the son of Howard Mead of Hartford, Pa. The ceremony was performed at St. Mark's Rectory, Bristol. The couple resides at 401 Washington Street, Bristol.

Hunterdon County PTA Fall Meeting Scheduled Oct. 23

FLEMINGTON.—The annual Fall meeting of the Hunterdon County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will be held October 23 at the West Portal School. Registration will begin at 1:45 p. m., followed by a business session. A supper will be served at 6 and the evening meeting will be at 7:30.

A presidents' tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Appar, High Bridge, president of the county PTA, will be held next month. A school of instruction also is being planned for Spring, under direction of Mrs. M. A. Virucola, second vice president of the New Jersey State PTA Executive committee meetings are planned for next February 13 and March 13 in the office of County Superintendent Harry W. Moore here.

Several members of the county PTA will attend the annual State convention to be held October 30, 31 and November 1 at Atlantic City. Mrs. Joseph Carman of Whitehouse is in charge of bus arrangements.

Lectures At Princeton By Professor Brunner

PRINCETON.—Two lectures will be given this week by Professor Emil Brunner of the University of Zurich, Switzerland, under the auspices of Princeton Theological Seminary. Thursday evening at 7:30, Professor Brunner will speak on "Historical Revelation." The following morning at 10, he will discuss "The Doctrine of the Trinity." Dr. Brunner, who is considered one of the world's leading theologians, was a guest professor at the Seminary in 1938-39. He is the author of a number of books, including "The Mediator," "The Divine Imperative" and "Revelation and Reason." His lectures in Miller Chapel will be open to the public.

Births Announced

BRISTOL.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Horace Tomlinson of Hulmeville are the parents of a daughter born last Tuesday in Abington Hospital. The child has been named Janis Elaine. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dunlap Jr. of Green Street, Hulmeville, are the parents of a son born last Tuesday in Abington Hospital. A daughter was born to Mrs. John Arena at the Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, September 29. Mrs. Arena is the former Miss Isabelle Henth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henth of Buckley Street.

In New Homes

BRISTOL.—Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Mignone and family have moved from Dorrance Street to their apartment on Mill Street. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell and family, who were residents of Madison Street, have moved to Hayes Street.

Auxiliary Meeting

MORRISVILLE.—A regular meeting of the Capitol View Ladies Auxiliary will be held at 8 tonight. Mrs. Michael Sayko, president, will be in charge.

Auxiliary Session

MORRISVILLE.—Union Fire Ladies Auxiliary will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the fire house. Mrs. Betty Wilmot, president, will be in charge.

Hedding

The stained glass windows of the Hedding Methodist Church have been repaired. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carr of Drexel Hill, Pa., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wainwright. Among those from here attending the State Fair were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wainwright, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wainwright and Mr. and Mrs. Warner Wainwright.

Veterans' Administration Plans Class A Office At Burlington

BURLINGTON.—Expansion of the Veterans Administration office in Burlington into a Class A office is being planned if sufficient space can be found, George Virgin, local VA representative, has informed Common Council. Virgin said the present quarters at Burlington Army are too small. Office space is available in the city office building, he said, but not on the first floor, which would make it inconvenient to disabled veterans. He asked if the city would be willing to install an elevator in the building. Councilman Stanley Ryba has moved that the public buildings committee find out what the cost of such an improvement would be. Ryba said he felt the VA office would be an asset to the city and it should be kept here if at all possible.

Columbus Grange Conducts Annual Booster Program

COLUMBUS.—Past State Chaplain D. D. Rossell and State Lecturer Francis Kellow were the guest speakers at the annual Booster Night program of Columbus Grange No. 82. A quiz contest was staged by Mrs. Russell Armstrong, lecturer, with the following contestants taking part: Raymond Rossell, William Grant, Captain Leon Patterson, Clifford B. Townsend, Mrs. Anna Bryan, Mrs. Anna Meirs, Walter Bowne, Wilmer Jones, Allan Meirs and Mrs. Irene Pritchett. Mrs. Anna T. Jones, principal of Columbus School, was the quiz master.

A message from State Master Franklin C. Nixon was read by Worthy Master Edwin Shinn. 4-H Club songs were rendered by the following girls: Betty Pigott, Shirley Shinn, Jeanette Roberts, Doris Wainwright, Joanne Keiser, Gladys Tallman and Marilyn Tallman. Mrs. Charles Pigott, club leader, directed. Also on the program were vocal solos by Mrs. Dean Clarke and Miss Gladys Tallman, and piano solo by Miss Betty Pigott. A covered-dish supper preceded the meeting, which was attended by about 100 persons.

Engaged To Wed

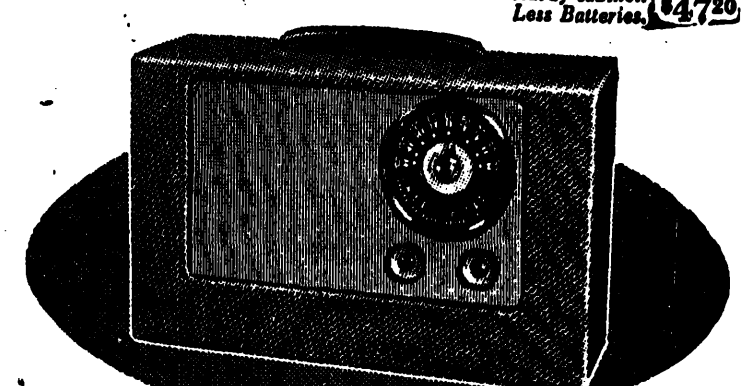

PRINCETON.—The engagement of Miss Ellen Pareso of 15 Leigh Avenue to Charles Rendale, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rendale of Newark and Vailsburg, has been announced by members of the family. Miss Pareso, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pareso, attended Princeton High School.

Meet At Bristol

BRISTOL.—Troop No. 5, Junior Catholic Daughters of America, met last week at the home of Patricia and Shirley Tosti, Monroe Street, under the sponsorship of Miss Diane Polfein. Members present were, Joyce Pray, Frances Poliziano, Patricia Hefferman, Ardent and Ann Bechter, Mary Ann Ferry and Mary Bayhoff.

AT WHITEHILL

STORE HOURS
Open Daily — 9:30 til 5:30
Thursdays — 12 Noon Til 9:00 P.M.

"WHEN YOU CAN GET THIS PORTABLE PERFECTION WHY BE SATISFIED WITH LESS?"

The New 1947 Emerson Radio

Come in NOW for demonstration of the New 1947 Emerson Radio development—THREE TIMES THE POWER of previous radio.

Emerson Phonoradio Model 506. Radio-phonograph combination with automatic record changer for continuous playing of 10 in. and 12 in. records. Miracle Tone. Hand-sound cabinet of selected wood. $123.20

BUY ON TERMS
Emerson Model 515, ACDC compact with built-in super loop circuit developments. Modern plastic cabinet. $300 net.

Wide range of models—starting at $21.60

Broad & Academy St. Phone 5253 Whitehill