

GIRL SCOUTS

TRENTON AREA COUNCIL

MEMBER AGENCY DVLF

Drama Workshop For Leaders

All Troop leaders, assistants, and other interested adult Scouts, will attend a Dramatic Workshop on May 21 and 22 from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Each person should bring sandwiches. Coffee will be furnished.

This workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Oleda Schrottky, of national headquarters. Arrangements are being made for a suitable place to hold the workshops and announcement will be made later.

Camp Wanda Needs Volunteers

Leaders, can you enlist the aid of your husband? Scouts, can you get dad to lend a hand? Sooner than you think it will be time to pack the bags and head for the week or two at Camp Wanda. You as leaders, and you Scouts who will go, would we are sure like to have the tents pitched, the brush cleared out to cut down the fire hazard, and sundry other little, but important, jobs finished.

Trenton Council is desperately in need of MEN to help do this work. There must be many men who would welcome a day out-of-doors to help get camp ready for their daughters.

Ira Beebe, chairman of the Facilities and Maintenance Committee of the Council, is asking that any father willing to help on either April 28 or May 5 to contact him at JUniper 7-4340 and he will gladly give details.

Leaders' Workshop For District 3

This is a reminder to the leaders of Lambertville, Titusville, Pennington, Hopewell, and the Lawrence Area, of the Workshop to be held Wednesday evening from 8 to 10 at Hopewell Presbyterian Church.

There will be two concurrent sessions, one for Brownie leaders on nature and the out-of-doors, and the other for Intermediate leaders on planning the troop program. Mrs. Kathryn Staller is district chairman.

Brownie Troop 3 Holds Meeting

Brownie Troop 3 under leadership of Mrs. Sue Light met April 10. The girls finished making their Easter baskets which were filled with candy given by one of the troop mothers, Mrs. Earl Hansen. Another mother baked bunny cookies. Games and songs concluded the meeting. Natalie Gordon played "taps" on her violin. Lauren Gerofsky, scribe.

Egg Hunt Held For Troop 11

Instead of a troop meeting on April 11 the troop scheduled an egg hunt at Washington Crossing Park. Although showers succeeded in dampening the city shortly before the meeting, the Brownie spirits were not dampened. Mrs. Philip Zuckerman graciously offered the use of her basement for the affair. Each Brownie had been requested to bring two eggs, a total of 36. These were hidden by mothers who attended the meeting. Following the hunt the troop, under leadership of Mrs. Paula Giffin, played games.

Joan Sacks-Wilner was named refreshment chairman; Betty Ann Walicy, emergency telephone chairman; Diane Berkowitz and Suzann Giffin volunteered to make the annual scrap book for the sponsors of the troop. Mothers present were: Mrs. S. Aronson, Mrs. Hilda Denson, Mrs. Philip Zuckerman, Mrs. Fran Warren, Mrs. Philip Berkowitz, Mrs. George Walley assistant troop leader, and Mrs. Giffin, leader.

Hike Is Planned By Troop 117

Troop 117 held its meeting April 17. We collected dues and discussed taking a trip to Rye Beach, New York. Afterward we played a game and had a lot of fun. — Gloria M. Daily, secretary.

Troop 186 Invests New Members

The girls of Troop 186 are sponsoring bake sale which will be held on May 11th. On May 22 we are going to have a belated Easter party. We have been weaving baskets which we are going to fill with candy for the party. Three girls were invested in our troop. They are: Linda Asay, Carol Kurlander and Peggy Czajkowski. — Barbara Trapp, scribe.

Morrisville Troop News

Troop 108 has two events planned. On May 17, 18 and 19 the girls are planning a camping trip to Ralph Sloyer Park. On May 22 they are having a Court of Awards. Troop 81 is making plans for a Mother's Day program. Two patrols will present a play, the title being "Juliet's Dream." Thirteen older girls in this troop are working on their TV and Radio badge. They visited the Capitol View Fire House in Morrisville to see the new radio equipment in operation. They also visited radio station WTMM.

Troop 151 dyed eggs and made Easter baskets. They also got Braille calendars from the Bucks County Association for the Blind and distributed the calendars to those who could read Braille.

Mother-Daughter Fete For Troop 45

Intermediate Troop 45 held its annual mother-daughter dinner at Bethany Presbyterian Church last week. Girls of Troop 64 and Troop 189 were special guests. Dr. Russell W. Annich, pastor, gave the invocation. The dinner was in charge of Mrs. Galley and Mrs. Nicolai.

Mrs. Bertha Worthington, leader of Troops 45 and 189, presented gifts to Mrs. Robert Vecere and Mrs. Ross K. Mason who are retiring as troop leaders.

Several short plays were presented by the Scouts. Patrol 1 gave "Five Chinese Brothers," with Michele Prunetti, Rosemary Ford, Phyllis Clayton, Joyce Smith, Barbara Heater, Michele Bencivengo, Kathy Donohoe, Dorita Nicolai and Sharon Tyler taking part.

A play, "The Sad Story," was given by Diana Daino, Beverly Cartwright, Diana Boyce, Patty Pley, Donna Kulzenga, Rosalie DiDonato, Alice Sindora, Sandra Anderson, Agnes Martin, Grace Cillo, Carol Yopp, Joanne Guarino, Lorraine Retucchia, Elvira Marinari, Jill Mosovich, Jean Constantini, Linda Palantini, Catherine DiLeo, Pat Constantini, Carol Seaman, Louise Tackacs and Kay Worthington.

Patrol 3 gave a fashion show. Taking part were Charlotte Krick, Carol Clinton, Betty Ann Cole, Linda Galley, Carol Weisgarber, Ruth Tenney and Regina Zindl.

Patrol 2 gave the play, "The Emperor's New Clothes." The cast consisted of Dolores Blew, Linda Kelly, Virginia Cifelli, Janice Cole, Mary Jo Lawton, Vera Venio, Claudia Salvatore, Lillian Heater, Margaret Birk and Linda Kelly.

Assistant leaders of the troop are Misses Shirley Garay, Barbara Papp and Mrs. Anne Seaman.

Thousands Of Narcissus In Bloom At Park

Patches of Spring flowers brighten Washington Crossing State Park

Colorful Blossoms Spot Historic Trails As Spring Comes To Washington Crossing

Yellow and white of daffodil and narcissus nod along historic Continental Lane in New Jersey's Washington Crossing State Park. Now designated as a ramble for strollers and nature lovers, the path leads toward Bear Tavern Road from behind the McKonkey Ferry House. It was along this route that Washington's army trudged on route to the Battle of Trenton on Christmas night 1776.

The Park is now state-owned property administered by the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development. Portions of the high bank near the main park entrance are blanketed with the white and lavender of mountain pink. Forsythia bushes in Spring yellow also edge the road separating the Ferry House and upper grounds from the picnic area beside the river bank.

Violets and the blue of myrtle are found in many secluded sections of the park, while overhead the pink and white buds of several varieties of cherry and of dogwood are near their bloom. Picnic areas, still scantily shaded trees in bud, are well filled each sunny weekend with visitors beginning another season out of doors in New Jersey.

First Aiders Set Meeting On Campaign

The fund drive committee of the Lawrence Township First Aid Squad will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 in squad headquarters. Clifford W. Sneiderker Jr., drive chairman, is expected to explain details of the campaign, scheduled for the last three weeks of May.

Business Meeting For Civitan Club Here Wednesday

The Civitan Club will hold a business meeting at 12:15 p.m. Wednesday in Hotel Hildebrecht. Committee reports will be given and plans will be made for the annual installation dinner in June. The board of directors will meet Tuesday evening at 8. Appointments to the offices of chaplain, sergeant - at - arms and secretary will be made, credentials will be given delegates to the district convention in Washington, May 3, 4 and 5. Directors also will pick delegates to the International Convention in Chicago June 23 to 26. Richard W. Grafton, president, will preside at both meetings.

NATIONAL RETAIL CREDIT WEEK—APRIL 28th to MAY 4th

THE GOOD THINGS OF LIFE... on Credit

HAVE you ever wondered why a friend or neighbor... who makes no more money than you do... is able to buy a lot of nice and useful things you apparently cannot afford?

Sometimes, perhaps you assume that he's living beyond his means... mortgaging his future... keeping only one jump ahead of the sheriff.

That would be a wrong guess in the case of millions of individuals and families who live better than their neighbors on no greater income because they use credit intelligently.

It is possible to enjoy more of the good things of life without waiting months or years to accumulate the cash to pay for them. A new booklet entitled "The Good Things Of Life—On Credit," explains the modern system of credit which enables responsible people to buy almost anything they want... or obtain almost any kind of service... anywhere, any time—and pay for it later.

A free copy of this booklet "The Good Things Of Life—On Credit," will be mailed to you on request.
