General Washington Chapter of D. A. R. Will Unveil Marker at Session April 12

Nominating Committee Will Be Elected at Business Meeting Which Will Be Preceded by Luncheon. Mrs. C. E. Murray to Entertain Board

UNVEILING of a marker in a grove of elm trees planted at Washington Crossing Park will be a feature of the next meeting of the chapter which will be held on April 12. The meeting will be preceded by a luncheon at Ye Olde Ferry Tavern, at which 10 members of the chapter will be hostesses. Upon completion of a business session members of the chapter will assemble in the New Jersey Washington Crossing Park to unveil the boulder. For the past few years General Washington Chapter has been planting trees at the park until now it has to its credit a sizable grove of American elms, and it is taking advantage of the Bicentennial year of George Washington to mark and dedicate the grove to his memory.

State Forester Charles P. Wilber has been invited to attend the unveiling and to represent the State of New Jersey on this occasion. At the business meeting a nominating committee will be elected and the members will present a ticket of officers to be elected at the annual meeting in May.

Mrs. Archibald W. Brown, vice regent of the chapter, will be chairman of the hostess committee. The other hostesses will be: Mrs. Harry R. Wilson, Mrs. Robert K. Bowman, Mrs. Frederic Collier, Mrs. James O. Studifford, Mrs. William V. Coleman, Mrs. Horace D. Bellis, Mrs. Stephen C. Barlow, Mrs. George Cranmer, Miss Elma Lawson Johnston, regent, and Miss Mildred Broughton.

Mrs. C. Edward Murray, retiring regent of the New Jersey Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be hostess to members of the present board of managers of the organization at luncheon at her home, 180 West State Street, on Arbor Day, Friday. This will be in connection with the activities attending the acceptance of the Maryland Chapter, D. A. R., gift of an elm tree to the State of New Jersey by the New Jersey Chapter and the dedication of 200 similar trees by school children of this city.
